Wetaskiwin's Spiel to Start on January 30th With Four Big Events

Many Outside Rinks Expected for Annual Ice Classic—Prizes Will Be Many and Most Valuable—Entries Close on Saturday, January 28th—Will Use Chisholm System of Drawing

About a dozen rinks from outside points attended last season's big bonspiel of the Wetaskiwin Curling Club and incidentally romped off with considerable of the jewelry, though the local curlers made a brilliant showing and topped a goodly share of the honors. This year the big bonspiel are slated to open on Monday, the 30th of January and it is anticipated that the six sheets of ice will be going full blast day and night for three or four days. Entries close on Saturday, the 28th and must be in the hands of C. B. McMurdo, secretary, at that time to be included in the draw.

There will be four big competitions this year. The primary events will be the Grand Challenge and Loggie events. The Boone and Williamson competitions are classed as secondaries, and will be confined to rinks which fail to make the grade in the primary events. Then, of course, prizes will be awarded to the winners of the Grand Aggregate. The Chisholm system of drawing will be enforced.

Secretary McMurdo has already received several enquiries from neighboring communities. It is expected that Edmonton will furnish keen competition by sending several rinks, and that Lacombe and Ponoka will make strong bids for glory. Millet will have probably three rinks in the fracas and word has been received that Killam will have a bunch of rock heaters which will work havoc with the aspirations of their opponents in at least some of the events.

The prizes which are being hung up will prove very attractive. Two of the leading firms of the city have already contributed sixteen prizes for two of the competitions and there will be many others.

SEVENTY MILE GALE TAKES HEAVY TOLL IN GREAT BRITAIN

London, Jan. 6.—A 70-mile gale swept England today, crippling telegraph lines, raising 214 telephone poles and hampering shipping. Two persons were killed and many injured.

A gale in the Irish Sea caused mountainous waves, compelling the return to Holyhead of a lifeboat which had attempted to assist the steamer Moyle drifting without a rudder five miles south of that port.

The Royal Mail Packet liner, Deena, went to the assistance of the Moyle, a 1,761 ton vessel, navigated in cross-channel traffic.

The storm added to the hardship of snowbound villages of various sections of the country which have been isolated for more than a week by blizzards.

Floods have also added to the hardships of the winter, which is one of the most severe England has experienced.

Airplane flights between London and Paris were cancelled today, and shipping was completely disorganized. While the weather has been most uncomfortable, especially because of poor heating facilities, the newspapers have been quick to point out that the English can adapt themselves to anything, even unprecedented climatic conditions.

HOW TO LIVE LONG

1. Begin by taking care of yourself when young.
2. Have health examinations at least once a year.
3. Avoid excesses of life.
4. Develop early in life an avocation to maintain interest in the world, preferably along some line that brings one in contact with nature.
5. Live in communities protected by efficient public health officers and measures.—Dr. Charles H. Mayo.

Fox Breeding in Province Expanding

Encouraging reports featuring the expansion of the fox breeding industry in this province were received on Saturday at the annual meeting of the Alberta Silver Fox Breeders' Association, held at the Palliser hotel. The association has increased its membership in one year from 76 registered ranch owners to 148.

An adjourned meeting of the members will be held in about two months' time, when it is expected that the new constitution drafted by the Canadian National Silver Fox Breeders' Association will be completed and accepted by the provincial organization.

Officers for the ensuing year were

ALBERTA SECOND IN COAL PRODUCTION

Ottawa, Jan. 6.—Up until the end of October, 1927, Canadian coal mines had produced 13,783,782 tons of coal, and Nova Scotia's share was 5,873,988 tons, or 4 per cent. This is shown in a report issued today by the department of trade and commerce. Alberta was a close second with 5,238,144 tons or 38 per cent, while British Columbia contributed 18 per cent, with 2,204,538 tons. The total amount is an increase of slightly over one million tons in comparison with the ten-month period of 1926.

The number of men employed in the coal industry of Canada is 29,094, divided between 6,511 surface men and 22,583 underground. Nova Scotia mines employ 13,402 persons; Alberta, 9,469 and British Columbia 4,093. Saskatchewan has 648 and New Brunswick 682.

LOCAL THESPIANS TO STAGE "EYES OF LOVE" AT CAPITAL

Appear in Millet on Friday of Next Week—Billed to Play Edmonton on February 3 Under Auspices Norwood United Church.

Mrs. B. W. Bellamy was in Millet on Monday, completing arrangements for the appearance in Pinyon's Hall on Friday of next week of the Wetaskiwin United Players in "Eyes of Love," the three-act comedy drama, which made such a decided hit at the Angus last month. The play is being staged under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of Millet United Church. Several Wetaskiwin citizens have expressed their intention of visiting Millet on the occasion.

ALBERTA FARMERS' POSITION IMPROVES

Calgary, Alta., Jan. 6.—Extension of the southern Alberta debt adjustment act to take in the northern and other parts of the province may not be necessary as a result of the signal improvement in farming conditions throughout the province, according to an opinion expressed by Hon. J. F. Lymburn, attorney general of the province of Alberta, when seen by a Herald reporter on Thursday.

Mr. Lymburn stated, however, that the matter of extension of the debt act was being carefully considered by all members of the government and the final decision would rest with the government.

In discussing the farming situation throughout the province, Mr. Lymburn said that a number of farmers in the north had actually expressed a desire to have the extra judicial seizure act wiped off the statutes altogether and this expression would tend to indicate that conditions were vastly improved.

In reference to the possibility of Alberta following the lead of Saskatchewan in the proposal to have the Royal Canadian Mounted Police take over the duties of the provincial police, Mr. Lymburn said that this matter was in the hands of the premier, J. E. Brownlee, and the premier was giving it considerable thought. He believed, however, that the matter would be discussed more fully by the government at a later date.

Suggested amendments to the regulations governing the administration of all private and public hospitals were being carefully considered by Hon. Geo. Hoadley, minister of agriculture, and Mr. Lymburn was not inclined to make any comment upon them.

EAGLES VERSUS RABBITS

Lethbridge, Alta., Jan. 7.—It is usually the uncommon thing for jack rabbits to run in droves and many people are being puzzled why this happens, but a crowd of the vermin, many of whom were very good runners during the last week while watching a pitched battle between several large eagles and the jack rabbits in the fields.

Some of the rabbits lost the battle and those in the vicinity hurried away to the shelter of a bunch of trees around a farm where the eagles did not attempt to follow them. The coyotes were seen herding the rabbits toward the trees, but as the trees were close to the farmer's buildings the coyotes did not follow them, so it happens rabbits are not so wild as eagles or coyotes and find the protection in the trees that the bare prairie cannot afford for that reason and hunt their farms during the night.

Eagles and coyotes are true farmers' friends this winter as they are destroying thousands of rabbits along the border.

Mr. Griffiths and his brother, Mr. George Griffiths, smashed an upstairs window and got the other four children out in their night clothes. ## Weddings

AGAR-STANLEY

A popular wedding took place at the manse of the Third Avenue United church, Saskatoon, on Friday evening of last week, when Miss Gertrude May Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Stanley of Wetaskiwin, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Leslie Noel Agar of Dodsland, Sask. Dr. W. S. Reid officiated. The affair was very quiet, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Frisbane, formerly of Wetaskiwin, signed the register. The contracting parties were unaccompanied, and the bride was charmingly dressed in pink crepe-de-chene and wore a white hat. After a brief honeymoon, the happy young couple will take up their residence in Dodsland, Sask.

ALL WETASKIWIN ROADS NOW OPEN FOR CAR

All roads leading out from Wetaskiwin are now open for automobile traffic. During the past few days the Wetaskiwin Good Roads Association has had a large number of work and those who have recently travelled over the roads report that a good job has been done. Owing to the heavy snow caused by the thaw, the work has been very difficult, and this week the heavy grader was used, which required a twelve-horse team to handle it.

The canvass for funds to keep the roads open has been in progress this week, and the canvassing teams are meeting with a generous response. It now appears as though sufficient money will be raised to keep the snow removed from the roads adjacent to Wetaskiwin for the remainder of the winter.

INSTALLS THE OFFICERS OF WETASKIWIN LODGE NO. 23

Mrs. F. G. Grevelt, Past Supreme Honored Royal Lady, Order of the Royal Purple, on the invitation of the Wetaskiwin Lodge No. 23 O.O.R.P., attended the annual installation of officers on Monday, when assisted by Lady Kerstine, installed the following officers in the Elks' club rooms: Mrs. J. E. Burkholder, Honored Royal Lady; Mrs. W. O'Neill, Associate Royal Lady; Mrs. F. Baker, Royal Lady; Mrs. G. Smith, Lecturing Royal Lady; Mrs. F. Chiddy, conductress; Mrs. G. Hay, secretary; Mrs. J. H. Walker, treasurer; Mrs. Long, outer guard; Mrs. J. Kolb, inner guard; Mrs. A. Abousafy, Mrs. J. McAllister, Mrs. E. H. Farnham, trustees; Mrs. Broadbent, chaplain. During the evening interesting reports were read showing that the membership had trebled since the lodge was instituted last March by Mrs. Grevelt. It was also reported that a splendid parade was entered in the Centennial parade. Plans are now on foot to entertain the girls and boys of teen age in the town. A buffet supper and community singing, led by Mrs. J. E. Burkholder, accompanied by the piano by Mrs. F. Atkinson, provided additional interest, while dancing brought a most enjoyable evening to a close.

PLAN ENTERTAIN U.F.A. DELEGATES

Much social spirit will be in evidence during the U.F.A. convention week. On the Monday preceding the opening of the convention on January 17, the Probus Club have invited the board of directors to a luncheon, and in the evening a dance has been arranged by the Palliser hotel for all delegates and their friends. At noon on the Wednesday, the directors of the U.F.A. and U.F.W.A., will be the guests of the Board of Trade at a luncheon, and on the evening of that day a banquet will be held at the Palliser by the U.F.W.A. for their delegates and a number of invited guests.

The arranging of accommodation for the 1,500 delegates and visitors has been placed in the hands of the Alberta Hotelkeepers' Association. Representatives will be in attendance at a special booth at the convention. This, it is stated, will save much time and trouble. Many of the delegates prefer accommodation in private homes, and a very complete list in connection with the letter will be available.

If the present mild weather continues, it is possible there will be an even larger attendance at the convention than was anticipated some little time ago, although it was then forecast that because of the more prosperous condition of farmers, the attendance promised to be the largest in recent years. Many farmers' wives who have not hitherto accompanied their husbands, it is stated, are arranging to visit the convention on the present occasion.

Chas. S. Pingle, M.L.A., and former speaker of the Legislature, died suddenly at his home in Medicine Hat.

The members of the Kiwanis Club and a number of guests were favored with an exceptionally interesting address by Prof. Rowan of the University of Alberta, on the subject of "Bird Migration," at their weekly luncheon on Tuesday evening. He referred to many theories by scientists of the earlier periods of history, many of which, in the light of present knowledge, were fallacious. The migration periods came with remarkable regularity, especially in the larger birds, such as the geese, which were not affected so much by changes in weather conditions. Three outstanding reasons for the regularity of migration were changes in temperature, barometric pressure and food supply. The professor also referred to some of the experiments he is carrying on in his aviary, where he has canaries which came through the recent cold spell of 49 degrees below zero without any apparent injury or severe suffering.

Two new members were introduced to the club in the persons of Ed Moore and H. C. Cooke, the former by H. R. French and the latter by H. W. Wright. President George M. James presided at the meeting.

MOUNTIES TO TAKE CHARGE OF POLICE IN SASKATCHEWAN

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—In Saskatchewan the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will shortly take over the duties of the Provincial Police, and eliminate the duplication of forces, it is agreed between the Province and the Dominion now in prospect is carried through to completion. Premier Gardiner and Attorney-General Davies are now returning to Regina to consult as to certain phases of the proposed agreement after a conference with Hon. Ernest Lapointe, the ministerial head of the R.C.M.P.

Possibility of some such similar arrangement with Alberta has been under discussion for some time.

Why You Should Finish High School

The following twelve reasons why a student should finish his high school course should be read by every parent, every student, and it wouldn't be amiss to have them posted in every school in the land. Coming at this time of the year which is practically gone, and a new year just ahead, and hundreds of pupils in the grades wondering what to do, they are timely and to the point.

1. The world wants young men and young women who get things done—who finish what they begin. The applicant for a position who is able to say with confidence, "I have completed my high school course" has a definite advantage over the one who must confess to an uncompleted task.

2. The general level of education in this country has been so raised during the last few years that the young person who does not have at least a high school education is, in preparation, below the average of those with whom he must compete all his life and is always, therefore, at a disadvantage.

3. A high school education gives to the student a wealth of information at a time when the memory is alert and retentive, and thus provides an invaluable preparation for later life.

4. Inspiration for achievement usually comes about high school age and often through associations, instruction, or insight, during the high school course.

5. All worth-while education sharpens the mental faculties and shapes habits. High school training is acquired at a time when the mind is plastic, elastic and retentive. It is safe to say that permanent habits are more largely developed during the four years in high school than in any other period of life.

6. Colleges and universities require high school graduation for admission. Countless thousands of men and women today regret the fact that a college course was denied them because they permitted some trivial thing to prevent the completion of their high school course.

7. The high school course pushes back the mental horizon and gives the student and insight into the activities of the people of the world that cannot be had at any other time or in any other way.

8. Society demands high school graduation as evidence of good judgment, and fitness for responsibility and good citizenship.

9. Graduation from high school gives the capacity to enjoy life. It is the open sesame to the treasures of literature, the companionship of intelligent men and women, and to the enjoyment of leisure time.

10. The high school graduate has real joy in his accomplishment. To have finished his course gives him faith in his own ability and the courage to undertake other tasks.

11. Last, but in no sense least, the power that course gives, makes for larger earnings—and it must be conceded that whatever other accomplishments an individual may have, the inability to make a living for himself and to take care of his logical financial responsibilities renders ineffective all his other achievements.

12. And it can be done. Never permit the thought to enter your mind that you cannot finish your course. The moment you do so you confess your own inferiority and your lack of faith in yourself. Millions of students have finished the course that you are working on—and you, too, can do so. Believe in your own power—and then back your judgment with effort. Remember the crude but true statement of the paragon: "Success comes in cans, failures in can't's."

SUPERSTITIOUS

Many things thought commonplace and customary seem unusual and strange if by chance they get into print. A case in point is the delay in recording a deed in the capital city of Pennsylvania occasioned by the refusal of a woman to transact business on the thirtieth day of the month and by the reluctance of a man to invest his money under an "unpropitious" sign of the zodiac.

It must be generally known that there are thousands of people, both urban and rural, who "waver" by the almanac and who believe the number thirteen is "unlucky," and yet to great numbers the thing seemed unbelievable when presented in newspaper type.

Many who deny being superstitious also deny that superstition has anything to do with "believing in signs" or planting the garden and transacting business by the signs of the zodiac. They place no credence in the supernatural, but never "make garden" without first consulting the almanac. To what proportion of the country's population this applies is impossible of determination, but it is evident it is no small minority.

After all, the end and not the means is the thing to consider. If all business transacted on every other day of the month than the thirtieth were successful "would be folly to do business on the 'unlucky' thirtieth, and if the gardeners a la zodiac always raise bumper crops there is no reason why they should adopt another method.

COMMUNITY SUICIDE

One of the strangest phenomena witnessed in most towns and small cities is the apparent eagerness with which many otherwise good citizens contribute to the tendency to commit community suicide.

These citizens will often show uncommon zeal in boosting any movement to obtain civic improvements, to promote the location of new industries, to secure better educational facilities and so on. Yet many of these same proud boosters will deliberately engage in a practice which nullifies all their otherwise laudable efforts—and then they wonder why their town doesn't go ahead.

We refer to the suicidal habit of buying away from home, which is largely responsible for the failure of many communities to make the progress which their natural advantages should make possible. The money that ought to be kept at home for the expansion of local trade and industry is sent away to distant cities, never to return, through the indifference or thoughtlessness of the very persons who should set an example of local pride and loyalty.

A trifling saving here and there, usually more imaginary than real, is sufficient to cause the average citizen to forget his duty to his community and to himself, which if persisted would mean more in the direction of local prosperity than all his other boosting efforts put together.

Why boost in one direction, while committing community suicide in another?

THE SIZE OF A NEWSPAPER

Frequently, when the size of a newspaper varies, the publisher hears the remark: "My, but the paper is small this week; there must be a scarcity of news!"

Too often, the reader of a newspaper fails to realize that the size of his paper depends upon the volume of advertising being carried, rather than upon the amount of news the editor may be able to gather in his district. For instance, unless there is a sufficient number of columns of advertising available to publish six or eight or ten pages, the publisher must trim the size of his paper to correspond. News cannot be published without advertising to pay for the cost of publication of that news. No paper can render a news service gratuitously and the subscription price of newspapers is known to be under the cost of newspaper production.

A paper which has a large advertising business can publish many pages of news. When such advertising diminishes, for one reason or another, the size of the newspaper shrinks as a result. The reader can assist in maintaining the proportions of his paper, to a considerable extent, by showing his interest in the news advertising in its pages. But at any rate, it is not through scarcity of news that a newspaper cuts down in size, it is invariably because of insufficient advertising to make it financially profitable to publish in more pretentious form.

Keep in mind that your local business man is largely responsible for the publication of your paper, and show him that you know it by a tact by showing an interest in his advertising—or remind him of the lack of it—Hanna Herald.

Editorial Notes

Have you learned to write it "1928."

How about those New Year resolutions?

Now that the holiday season is over, what's the matter with organizing a Board of Trade and keeping the opportunities offered in Wetaskiwin before the world? If we are to develop as we should, we must help ourselves!

The number of people who have been prosecuted lately throughout the province for neglecting to secure a radio license should be a warning to all radio owners to get busy. The license costs only $1.00 but the fines are running around $5.00 and costs of ten days.

We are told there exists a beautiful custom in Germany, which it would be well to imitate everywhere. On the first day of the New Year, whatever may have been the quarrels or estrangements between friends and relatives, mutual visits are exchanged, kindly greetings given and received—all is forgotten and forgiven. The New Year would be brighter if this were done in Alberta.

Turkey raising is a coming industry in Alberta as a number of successes at various fairs would indicate. A recent move in this connection is the formation of the Alberta Bronze Turkey Breeders' Association, which is now active in promoting and extending the turkey breeding industry.

According to Dr. J. B. MacDougall, Assistant Chief Inspector of the Ontario Provincial Department of Education, the operation of the Canadian Pacific school car in northern Ontario has proved a more successful venture than the Department had ever expected. He stated that the progress of the pupils during the year of operation has been remarkable.

The Western Canada Grain Pool contemplates spending $5,000,000 during the coming year in extensions to facilities in country elevators and terminals in Western Canada, according to George H. McIvor, General Sales Manager of the Pool, on a visit to Toronto recently. The building programme includes 100 or 150 country elevator in Alberta; 150 in Saskatchewan and 40 in Manitoba. About 300 carloads of Christmas trees will be delivered to the trade from the Province of Quebec from the end of November onward, according to indications of traffic received at Canadian Pacific Railway headquarters. This will mean about 500,000 trees of a value of about $1,000,000 to the farmers of this province. The average size of the trees for the New York and Boston markets is about 6 feet. They are mostly white spruce and balsam of the "weed tree" variety which is of prolific growth and little commercial value.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

(By Edson R. Waite, Secretary, Shaw and Olla, Board of Commerce). That newspaper ads. offer many attractive special values in seasonable merchandise that will appeal to all who appreciate low prices combined with quality merchandise.

That when you buy from the stores that advertise, you get better goods, quicker service and lower prices. That the wise shoppers do not waste much time looking around for the latest; they read the ads and then go direct to the store that advertises. Anyone can save time and money by following the example of the wise shoppers.

That they know that the stores that advertise have stocks so good, so full of style and so correctly priced that there is no use looking elsewhere. That the stores of your city have eschew; if swallowed it will soon produce a cancer, maybe two. I hath, like sin, a gaudy charm, beguiling to the eye, but if you eat it, with alarm you find you're billed to die. A wasting sickness clogs your veins so that the blood won't flow, and you are full of aches and pains till to the grave you go. Thus people talked when I was young about that crimson fruit, that like a deadly adder stung the thoughtless, brash galoot. There were a hundred ghastly tales of youths who ate and died, who gathered up the fruit in palls, and would not be denied. The superstition held for years, and countless timid souls beheld the fruit with clammy fears, nor touched it save with poles. We have outgrown that fool belief, removed the senseless ban; now the tomato is the chief of all the green goods clan. The doctors tell us every day, when pangs of sickness goad: "Buy fresh tomatoes on a dray and eat the whole blamed load. No better counsel could you get, with all ample stocks; they were purchased at favorable prices, which enables them to offer you quality goods at reasonable prices.

The merchants who do you the courtesy to tell you what they have through the advertising columns of the newspapers, always have what you want when you want it.

THE TOMATO

(Walt Mason)

"Touch not that fruit," the old man said, "or it will make you ill." I'd reached for a tomato red, upon the window sill. There had it ripened in the sun, whose beams upon it beat; it looked to me, a greedy one, like something good to eat. "The ripe tomato's passing fair," he said, with boding grin; but shun it, for it is a snare, a pitfall and a gin. It's loaded with a poisoned juice that wise men must eschew; if swallowed it will soon produce a cancer, maybe two. I hath, like sin, a gaudy charm, beguiling to the eye, but if you eat it, with alarm you find you're billed to die. A wasting sickness clogs your veins so that the blood won't flow, and you are full of aches and pains till to the grave you go. The doctors tell us every day, when pangs of sickness goad: "Buy fresh tomatoes on a dray and eat the whole blamed load. No better counsel could you get, with all your hoarded wealth; tomatoes are the one best bet, contributing to health." We eat them raw, we eat them fried, we eat them from a can; and up to date no man has died from following this plan.

LITTLE STONE DOG

When May Barnes was ready to return to her home her sister-in-law said to her:

"Now I want you to have something of Mac's. There are his watch, his sapphirine pin, his set of Bullock's tools, leather and that picture by Newkirk, which he was so fond of. You may take anything you wish."

May was silent. Sets of Bullock's expensive paintings did not express her brother to her. Neither did the watch he had carried or the pin he had worn on dress-up occasions. She wanted something else—something that Adrienne had not named.

It was fair to Adrienne to offer May her choice, all the more fair, perhaps, was he glad that his heart refused to beat longer?

"I shall never know," May thought sadly.

She sat one day sewing in the living room when she had a curious feeling of being watched. She glanced at the door and saw that the position of the little dog had been changed slightly and that the eyes were directed toward her.

The odd thing which her brother had fashioned with his own hands, had chiselled out of the flinty stone in his few hours of leisure. Adrienne had told her how he had toiled at the work after his business hours, trying to make the stone answer the shape and air of a little dog that he had loved. The dog had died, and this was a memorial to her. Her name,

Trixie, was engraved on the stone.

Dropping her work, May leaned back in her chair, gazing wistfully at the little stone dog. Gradually her eyes closed.

Then suddenly she heard a queer, dogish little voice speaking from the hearth. Without moving, lest she frighten away the sound, she listened.

"He bought a little black puppy of a boy that was misusing it. He gave the boy $5 and carried the puppy home in his arms. Adrienne was angry, she did not like dogs—or children. She said: 'I won't have the creature in the house.' For the first time she showed authority by replying to her:

'But I will have it.' She had to give in, and after a time she seemed to like Trixie very well herself. Trixie lived to be two years old. She was very knowing. She would sit on the window seat and watch for Mac's coming, and then she would bark and plunge at him and he would catch her up in his arms as if she were a child. Occasionally Adrienne scolded, but for the most part she said nothing.

She had so much else to interest her, and he had only the little dog.

Evenings when Adrienne was away dancing or playing cards he would sit before the fire with Trixie in his lap, resting. Then Trixie died—or so it may have been that Adrienne grew tired of her. Who knows? At any rate, she was gone. So he began to use the little stone image which she had used all the small knowledge of sculpture he had acquired in his youth, before he married Adrienne and found it necessary to make a statue for the sake of making a great deal of money quickly. He toiled over his making and sighed, and once a tear fell upon the chisel. At last it was finished and brought into the house and Adrienne laughed at the clumsy thing. But as he would have the dog so he would have the image. He said to her: 'You can't destroy this.'

And she colored as if—she—and then he worked harder and harder and money came faster. But Adrienne spent it all. There are women who can never have money enough. She did not care about him, only what he gave her. Did I not see, although my eyes are stone? He knew that there was a faulty valve in his heart; the doctors had told him he must go slow. But he went just as fast as ever—getting money for Adrienne.

And so he died.

May Barnes stirred in her chair and rubbed her eyes. She looked wistfully at the little stone dog, and the little stone dog looked back at her with its gray stone eyes as if there were no secrets between them.

WHICH KIND?

This One?

"Third Notice." Every editor has received them. The postmaster sends them to the editor. The postmaster is not to blame. For instance, there is a man by the name of—well, say Tim Short, who sent us three notices to stop his paper. He did not want it any longer; we wondered what was the matter. Upon investigating our subscription list we found that Tim was short five dollars and seventy cents. He had never paid a cent and yet he stopped his paper as a matter of economy—so to us. A few evenings ago we stepped into a church and Tim's melodious voice rang out loud and clear in the choir, "Jesus Paid It All." We may have been mistaken but his earnestness impressed us. The next day we sent him a receipt in full, begging his pardon for not knowing that he had made an assignment of his liabilities to the Lord—Carleton (Mo.) Republican Record.

Or This One?

How dear to our heart is the steady subscriber. Who pays in advance at the birth of each year; Who lays down the money, and does it quite gladly. And casts round the office a hallow of cheer.

He never says "Stop it, I cannot afford it." He goes on paying more than now I can receive.

But always says, "Send it, our people all like it—In fact we all think it a help and a need."

How welcome his cheque when it reaches our sanctum. How it makes our pulse throb, how it makes our heart dance.

We outwardly thank him; we inwardly bless him—The steady subscriber who pays in advance.

They were nearing the fearful stage of their first lift. "You talk of possessing judgment," she sniffed. "My judgment is far superior to yours any day." "Oh, unquestionably," he replied. "Our choice of life partners proved that."

Gas in the Stomach Is Truly Dangerous

Gas, Pain, Bloating and a feeling of fullness after eating are almost certain evidence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Too much acid irritates the delicate stomach lining, frequently causing chronic gastritis and dangerous Ulcers. Food ferments and acids, forming a gas that distends the stomach and often seriously affects the heart.

It is genuine folly to neglect such a condition or to treat with artificial dieting. The only safe method is to get stomach acid. A better way is to get stomachic. Some famous stomachic (powder or tablets) and take a little after each meal. This famous stomachic and anti-acid can be depended upon to prove its value in less than five minutes. In most instances, relief comes instantly. Pleasant and perfectly harmless to use—Bismarck's Stomachic does give wonderful relief in all cases of gas. Ask your Doctor or Druggist.

Edmonton—Northern Alberta's biggest farm and deal this year was completed the other day when the well-known Trent Farm was sold to a colony of Monmouths for more than $125,000. The new owners, eight families, will take possession on New Year's Day. The farm, which is in the Tofield district, has 2,641 acres.

Passengers on the "Empress of Australia" now touring the world had a memorable experience when they witnessed brilliant military manoeuvres near the Grand Pyramid initiated by King Fund of Egypt in honor of the visit of King Amanullah of Afghanistan. Some of the passengers were subsequently received at King Fund's court.

Toronto—An optimistic note with regard to the market for Canadian bacon was struck by A. J. Mills, representative of the British Ministry of Food in conference with packers here. He expressed the conviction that Canadian farmers would be very poorly advised to slacken in-hog production at the present time, stating that an improvement in the British market in sight, with many of the countries which had been flooding Britain with bacon during the past year being practically out of the business.

With around a thousand guests seated in the Ball Room, the Main Dining Room and the Jacques Cartier Room of the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec City, that famous hotel presented a remarkable scene on the occasion of the New Year's Eve festivities. Among the guests were the Governor of New Jersey and officials of the state, while important parties came up from New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Chicago and other cities of the United States.

A handsome New Year's gift to the people of Canada is indicated in the announcement of reduction of rates charged by Express Companies of the Dominion for shipment of packages up to 15 lbs. in weight and not over 3 1/2 feet in length, width or depth, which has been issued and filed with the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada by C. N. Ham, Chairman, Express Traffic Association. The reduction went into effect January 1 and it includes a continuation of the arrangement under which the Express Companies give protection against loss and damage up to $50 without extra charge on packages carried.

Toronto—The Exhibition at Toronto had all the faire on the continent last summer with an attendance of 1,750,000, according to a report by E. L. Richardson, of Calgary, President of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions. He states that fairs each year are becoming more popular and more successful, educationally and financially. More than 39,400,000 persons attended the 3,268 fairs in the United States and Canada this year, and attendance has, in fact, increased each year since 1910 by about 2,000,000. Investments in buildings and grounds is put at $350,000,000 and prizes each year amount to $8,400,000.

CAREFUL HANDLING OF MILK MOST ESSENTIAL

Miss Barton was addressing the Home Economic club in a town of 6,000 people—presumably the women present—were alert to all the proper handling of milk. All were convinced of the vital part of milk in the child's diet; yet in the discussion that followed the talk, one woman after another expressed herself as having trouble to get her children to drink a sufficient quantity of milk. "The children did not like the taste of milk and they would not drink it unless compelled, or unless it was served to them in some other form. Yet all were agreed that they must have it if they were to develop into normal, healthy children.

"I wonder," queried Miss Barton, "how you are handling your milk after you receive it. Perhaps I can make the explanation of your child's dislike of milk."

"We have talked about the proper supply of milk from tested cows, pasteurized milk, clean dairies, and the like, but there is another phase of the question—handling milk that it might be very well for us to stop and consider a bit carefully. I refer to the way the housewife handles the milk after she receives it. Perhaps I can make the point clearer by telling you a few of the things I have seen in high-grade homes. You all know that milk absorbs an odor, and a flavor of another substance very readily. Yet I have seen a number of women who suspended the milk bucket (with its none-too-tight lid) in the closet to save ice bills! O.T., the bucket was old and a bit rusty besides."

"But I think there is another reason why the kiddies resent the taste of milk—and that is because of a foreign flavor it has absorbed most often in the ice box. Bottles that are unclean on the outside, without stoppers in them, are placed in the same compartment with a varied assortment of other food—fresh fruits, salts, vegetables and the like. No wonder why they absorb a flavor that is offensive to the child. Many times this is the primary cause of a dislike for milk that lasts through life. And yet this careless handling of milk in the ice-box is almost universal today among women who are otherwise intelligent and careful in guarding their family's food supply."

"Milk is the natural food for a child—and if it is uncontaminated by any foreign odor, or flavor—the majority of children will like it. We have taken long strides in the commercial production and handling of milk—dairymen are alive to their responsibility for the public health and in large degree they are doing their part. But unless we in the home exercise the proper care of the milk after we receive it, much of the dairymen's time, labor and expense have gone for little. The home ice-box needs careful watching, if we are to protect the milk supply as it must needs be protected."

AFFECTS ALBERTA SCHOOLS

Pensioning of Alberta school teachers who have taught for 40 years or have reached the age of 60 will be provided in a bill to be submitted to the next session of the legislature, which opens on Feb. 2. The proposed bill provides for the deduction from teachers' salaries of 2 1/2 per cent monthly or quarterly, by the school boards by whom they are employed, and that a similar amount be contributed by the government, the whole to form a fund to finance the pension scheme.

Teachers coming under the act who retire from the profession within three years of the scheme being inaugurated, would sacrifice their contribution, and after the act comes into force they would be obliged to teach for five years or sacrifice their payments.

If, however, after contributing to the fund for five years, a teacher wished to retire, then the amount paid in, plus interest, could be withdrawn. The amount of pension would be dependent upon the total paid in by the teacher, and the length of service rendered.

The "confiscation" or forfeiture of payments referred to is justified by the sponsors of the bill on the ground that the state provides normal schools and other facilities to train teachers and suffers if those qualified cease teaching after a short period. On the other hand, the government's contribution to the fund is justified on the ground that the government already contributes to the civil service pension fund and that teachers are also servants of the state.

Considerable data has been collected based on experiences of other provinces where similar acts have been put in operation.

Educational experts have stated that a teacher does not attain full efficiency until after five years and statistics have shown that the average teaching life in Alberta is less than this. "It was with a view to remedying this state by assuring teachers a comfortable old age, and also to make their tenure of office more secure, that the bill was drafted."

START THE NEW YEAR RIGHT

Any home wishing to provide every member of the family, old and young, with a few hours' enjoyment every day during 1928, should see that The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is a regular weekly visitor. For two cents per week, or one dollar a year, every member of the family will receive a treat that will be appreciated. It is not only a world's news paper, but a great family magazine, unequalled on this continent, and a farm journal that will bring value a hundredfold during the year. The Family Herald is read already by one million Canadians each week. It is surely valuable, and every home receiving it is benefited by its weekly visit. 1928 will be happier for your home if you send one dollar for a year's subscription to the big 72 page paper.

ALBERTA HAS BEST FUTURE OF PROVINCES

That while Canada as a whole is on the verge of a great era of prosperity, prospects in Western Canada, and especially in Alberta, are better than in any other section of the Dominion, was the opinion expressed by Hon. R. B. Bennett K.C., leader of the Conservative party in Canada, who arrived in Edmonton from the Pacific Coast Friday morning. In the past few weeks Hon. Mr. Bennett has covered Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific. He believes that 1928 prospects were never before equalled.

"And Alberta's prospects especially are only limited by the ability to get people in here and to keep them here," he added. "This province is so new, and the opportunities so great, that I firmly believe the development for the next few years will be outstanding." Everywhere he has gone the Conservative leader finds the people talking of and thinking of the Peace River country.

"It is on the tongues of everyone everywhere," he said. "There is no question at all but that the next few years will see a great influx of people into that district, and it will mean much to Edmonton and to Alberta as a whole."

Development of other areas: natural resources of Alberta were also looked forward to by Mr. Bennett.

"It may take some time, but no one need doubt the great resources of this province," he said. "There is undoubtedly a great oil field and a great mineral deposit here. The trouble is definitely to locate them, but rest assured that it will be done. Personally I believe that the highly mineralized belt now discovered in northern Quebec, northern Ontario, northern Manitoba and northern Saskatchewan also exists in northern Alberta, and that it is only a question of time before it is located and developed. It may be pretty far north, but that will not keep out the prospectors and others who will ultimately develop it."

NEWSPAPER LAWS

Excerpts from Newspaper Law, printed for the benefit of any reader who may have mistaken ideas regarding same:

1. A postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning the paper does not answer the law) if the subscriber does not take the paper out of the post office and state the reason for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payment.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until payment is made.

3. Any person who takes a paper from the post office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he subscribes or not, is responsible for payment.

4. If a subscriber orders his paper stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the post office. This follows the principle that a man must pay for what he uses.

LADY CURLERS HOLD BUSINESS MEETING

A general meeting of the Ladies' Curling Club was held at the rink on Monday afternoon, to decide on a bonspiel. It was also decided to hold a dance on Tuesday, Jan. 17th, in the Elks' Hall. The dance will be a Leap Year novelty affair and Sullivan's Academy Orchestra of Edmonton, have been engaged. As several members were absent, it was decided to leave the arrangements for the bonspiel until a later date.

LACOMBE 'BONSPIEL' DATES ARE ARRANGED

Lacombe, Jan. 9.—Arrangements are being made for Lacombe's annual bonspiel to be held January 24, 25 and 26. As in other years this popular event is drawing a good many rinks from surrounding towns to compete for the high-class trophies put up by the Lacombe business men.

HOCKEY NOTES

While so-called professional and league hockey seems to have died a natural death in Wetaskiwin, a few adult citizens and several fine young men are doing what they can to keep this racy, thrilling sport alive and to furnish a healthy recreation and interest for young people. It is the time when a "friend in need is a friend indeed." On New Year's Monday two games were played, both being very good hockey. The Trail Rangers of Wetaskiwin played the Trail Rangers of Camrose in the afternoon. The team arising from the Tuxis Square played a team from Edmonton in the evening and gave an excellent exhibition of real hockey.

Angus Ridge vs. Wetaskiwin

The boys from Angus Ridge played Wetaskiwin on Monday. The weather being mild the ice was heavy, and so both teams found it hard work, yet it was a good game. The score when time was called stood 3-2 in favor of Wetaskiwin.

The lineups were:

Angus Ridge—Goal, George Wilson; defences, Clifford Waterson and Stanley Thirsk; forwards, Bruce Thirsk, Zeno Clelland, Kenneth Montgomery; sub and general manager, Eli Evans. Wetaskiwin—Goal, Clifford Mun; defences, Abraham Abousaffy and Arthur Brickman; forwards, Stanley Chandler, Alfred Velnes, Jim Dickson; subs, James Paton and Walter Orr. Referee—David Pritchard.

The hockey team looks very attractive in their new sweaters and socks. The design is a pretty combination of white and green with the letters "W.T." in front.

ICE HOLDS UP NICELY

Draws for the club competition at the curling rink were called off temporarily on Monday evening due to the mild weather. Tuesday evening, however, Martin and Head staged a scratch game for the edification of the sprinkling of rail birds present, who greatly enjoyed the reprieve injected by Graham's regular "accident." The ice was in fair shape and the mild weather is having little ill effect. Somers' rink has a comfortable lead in the club competition and unless his gang of "soopers" fall into a slump, the medals seem destined to remain in the hands of the present holders, who annexed them in the preliminary competition.

I WOULD BE TRUE

I would be true, for there are those who trust me;
I would be pure for there are those who care;
I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

I would be humble for I know my weakness;
I would look up and laugh and love and lift—Ex.

WHILE THE YEARS PASS

"Time travels at divers paces with divers persons." But for no one does time stand still. And no mortal has found the trick of stretching our waking hours to more than the clock measures with its moving hands. Nor can we, like the legendary Seven Sleepers of Ephesus, doze and wake to find the people about us using a new speech and a new coinage. But we can realize that each day is a new day, and "the years that bring the philosophic mind" teach us that while the days and months melt away like "the snows of yesterday," it is wisdom to take a lighter grip on the true realities and let the shadows go. If we take care of the day, the year will take care of itself.

FACE THE SUN

Don't hunt for trouble, but look for success!

You'll find what you look for—don't look for distress!

If you see but your shadow, remember I pray,

That the sun is still shining, but you're in the way!

Don't grumble, don't bluster, don't dream and don't shrink,

Don't think of your worries, but think of your work.

The worries will vanish, the work will be done.

No man sees his shadow who faces the sun.

Mrs. Jones—Your husband, I understand, has given up smoking. That needed a strong will.

Mrs. Jinks—Yes, I have one.

The NEW CAR

INTRODUCING A FINE CAR IN THE LIGHT CAR FIELD

THIS entirely new car surpasses the accepted standards of light car accomplishment; sweeps aside all boundaries of price class; establishes a new standard of acceleration, speed, power and smoothness. Heretofore the following characteristics have been combined only in expensive cars.

Speed—better than a mile a minute.

Acceleration—5 to 25 miles per hour in high gear in 8½ seconds.

Endurance—this car will travel all day at 50 miles per hour without strain on motor or chassis.

Riding comfort—flexible springs and four hydraulic shock absorbers permit comfortable travel at high speed over the roughest road.

Roadability—this car's low center of gravity holds it snugly to the road on an unbanked turn even at high speed.

Power—in deep, loose sand with the front wheels cramped and from a dead stop, the car will turn in a tight circle, forward or reverse, without effort.

Effective braking—the instant response of mechanical, four-wheel brakes with dual control ensures positive braking for any emergency.

Positive steering control—A relaxed hand on the steering wheel will hold the car steady in loose sand and over bumpy roads. Turning radius 17 ft.

Economy—30 miles per gallon of gasoline, plus the well known economies of Ford car maintenance.

Appearance—coach work of pleasing proportions, tastefully finished in an extensive range of color combinations of durable satin lacquer.

Quietness—Vibration in the engine is practically negligible. New final drive is exceptionally quiet. Double-ply anti-squeak tape, asphaltum treated fabric and hardwood blocks between body and frame minimize body noises.

Engine—At 2200 revolutions per minute the new four cylinder engine develops 40 H. P. This revolution speed is low for such power and sets an entirely new standard for light car speed and acceleration, enduring quality and operating economy.

Engine lubrication—Combination of pump, splash and gravity feed thoroughly lubricates all frictional surfaces regardless of road grades.

Cooling system—Combination water pump and Ford thermo-syphon system doubly insures ample radiation. Engine warms up quickly but will not overheat.

Electrical system—The new Ford designed distributor is placed on top of engine permitting direct connection to spark plugs by means of short bronze bands. The single coil is protected by a waterproof case. Co-incidental lock on ignition circuit is theft proof. The powerful starting motor and dependable generator are both of Ford design.

Clutch and transmission—Patterned after the famous Lincoln, these units give an operating ease never before found in moderate priced cars. The nine plate multiple dry disc clutch and the selective transmission are designed to make shifting of gears remarkably easy and simple. Getaway, unexcelled by any car made today, is just one of the many advantages. Three speeds forward and one reverse. All gears are made of heat-treated chrome alloy steel. The only light car in which transmission shafts are mounted on ball and roller bearings.

Rear Axle—The axle shaft itself carries no weight as the ¾ floating principle places the weight of the car on the axle housing. Torque roller bearings minimize rear wheel friction. A Torque Tube drive and spiral bevel gear are additional features.

Springs—Transverse semi-elliptic design. Relieved of all driving strain, they perform the sole function of cushioning road shocks. The transverse type of spring helps to prevent a large amount of frame distortion, makes four-wheel brake operation more efficient, gives easier steering and reduces unsprung weight.

Chassis lubrication—Alemite-Zerk pressure system.

Provincial Weekly News Bulletin

(Issued by Publicity Commissioner, Government of Alberta, Edmonton.)

Premier Goes East on Railway Business

Premier Brownlee and Hon. W. V. Smith, Minister of Railways, left on Friday for Montreal where they will confer with Sir Henry Thornton and E. W. Beatty, Presidents respectively of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways, in connection with the possible sale of the railways owned by the Alberta Government. Following a discussion of the Alberta railway situation with the heads of the two transcontinental lines, the Premier has arranged a conference at Ottawa where the natural resources and other problems affecting this province will be discussed.

In the meantime, preparations are going ahead for the opening of the Legislature at Edmonton on February 2nd.

Heavy Exports of Alberta Cattle

More than $500,000 worth of Alberta cattle were exported to the United States between July 1st and November 30th, 1927, according to the report of S. C. Reat, American Consul at Calgary. The shipments include some 12,000 head comprising stockers, feeders and butcher cattle. According to Mr. Reat, the American markets at the present time are very inviting to stockmen in Western Canada and shipments have shown greater activity during the past six months than in any similar period since the imposition of the Fordney-McCumber tariff in 1922.

Alberta Dairymen Plan Big Convention

Preparations are under way for the 21st Annual Convention of the Alberta Dairymen's Association which is to be held in Calgary on February 1, 2 and 3.

It is expected that some 500 dairymen will be in attendance including delegates from all parts of the province and prominent representatives of the industry from other sections of the Dominion. For the first time in Canada, a milk and cream grading competition will be held in connection with the convention and other features of interest include a butter judging contest and a boys' and girls' cattle judging competition.

Livestock Breeders to Meet in Edmonton

The annual meeting of the Alberta Provincial Horse, Cattle, Sheep and Swine Breeders' Associations will be held in Edmonton, on January 11 and 12.

Automobile Licenses Increased in 1927

An increase of $201 in the number of automobile licenses issued by Provincial Government license officers throughout the province during the year 1927 is announced by the Provincial Secretary's Department. During 1927 no less than 72,330 motor car and truck licenses were issued as compared with 64,129 issued in 1926.

Calgary Builders Active in 1927

Building permits numbering 562 and authorizing the erection of buildings at a total cost of $2,330,131 were issued in Calgary during 1927 showing an increase of $341,183 over the figures for 1926 according to a recently issued statement. The 1927 figures showed that 235 new houses at a total value of $1,236,141 were placed in construction or built. The number of new business buildings and blocks totalled 57 and aggregated a value of $710,470.

Traffic Heavy Between Calgary and Banff

Automobile traffic over the Banff Highway between Banff and Calgary, both ways, in 1927, up to November 30th, totalled 51,406 automobiles according to figures made public at the park. The figures show that west-bound Canadian cars totalled 24,513 and west-bound American cars 1,535, while east-bound Canadian cars totalled 23,652 and American cars 1,406.

While no complete check of passengers both ways, has been kept, it is estimated that the total was approximately 151,700.

New O.S.A. Dormitory Officially Opened

Some 500 people including students and ex-students of the Olds School of Agriculture and their friends and citizens of Olds attended the official opening of the recently completed dormitory building at that institute on Tuesday last. This event was combined with the annual reunion of graduates of the school which was attended by graduates from many parts of the province.

Inspiring and optimistic addresses were delivered by Premier Brownlee and Hon. George Hoadley, Minister of Agriculture.

With 265 students enrolled in the first and second years of the courses in agriculture and home economics, the present term is proving a busy one for Principal F. S. Grisdale and his staff.

Provincial Exhibit at Seed Fair

An interesting feature in connection with the Provincial Seed Fair which is to be held in Calgary from January 16 to 20, will be an exhibit of the agricultural products and other resources of the province display by the Publicity Branch of the Department of Agriculture. This includes grains, grasses, game, coal, oil, tar sands and other products and pictures illustrating many branches of agricultural life in Alberta. This exhibit, as well as the many choice samples of grain to be shown at the Fair is expected to attract a large number of those who will be in attendance at the U.F.A. Convention to be held during the same week.

NO PLACE FOR PESSIMISTS

"If you go to Canada a pessimist you will feel like a fish out of water and I prophesy you will come back cured. Anyone who tries to get a bird's eye view of Canada in a short time cannot fail to be almost overwhelmed by its sheer vastness. I did not hear of any serious problem in the relations between labor and capital over there. Canada has plenty of elbow room for both and she needs more men and money and when I say men I mean men and women."—Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Premier of Great Britain.

A European Tour

(By F. E. Kerr, B.A. Peterborough)

Nothing impressed me more overseas than the fall up the Clyde River to Glasgow on a clear summer evening with the sun hidden behind the masses of rock at three, then reappear-ing above.

The days are long in summer and the twilight lasts until after ten o'clock. We think a sail up the Otonabee in the evening is very beautiful, and so it is, but it lacks the rugged grandeur and picturesqueness of the country along the Clyde. On the left side is Argyllshire, noted as the home of the Campbells. In many ways it is like the Laurentian Highlands. Rocks rise up in all manner of shapes. Sometimes one single rock will stand out prominently; generally they seem continuous in ridges. One old Scot on the boat remarked to several of us that we had nothing like that in America.
I asked him if he had ever seen the Rockies. He said that he had, but he declared that these Scottish Highlands surpassed the Rockies. The latter are often bare but the former are covered with some form of herbage.
Coarse, scrubby evergreens, grass, heather, moss, all contribute to make these uplands singularly beautiful.
Argyllshire is noted for its cattle, and sheep. Sometimes nearly a million of the latter feed upon the hillsides. On the way up the river is the famous Rock of Dumbarton, rising abruptly 280 feet above the water. It is a doublepeaked eminence, crowned by a picturesque castle, now of no great importance, but at one time it was the guardian of the river. It is renowned in Scottish history. Here Sir William Wallace was betrayed to the English and imprisoned by Edward I. before he was taken to London to be executed.
Many people from Glasgow and other cities have summer houses along the Clyde river. One of the more pretentious of these belongs to Sir Harry Lauder. On our right-hand side going up was Argyllshire. It presented quite a contrast to the more rugged Argyll-shire. The land sloped rapidly to the river in many places, but it was usually more level and fertile. The chief industry along the Clyde is shipbuilding and we saw many ships in process of construction.

We disembarked at Glasgow. I do not feel competent to discuss it because we saw actually little of this,
the second largest city in the British Isles. I saw more people on the

Weddings

KILLALEY-HOUSE

A quiet wedding took place at the United Church parsonage on Tuesday, Jan. 9, when Mr. Percy Joseph Killaley was married to Miss Lillian House.
The bride was attended by Miss Mary Killaley. The participants are well-known residents of the West Millet district and we extend our congratulations. Rev. L. R. Macdonald performed the ceremony.

YOUR VOICE

"Clear enunciation makes it easy for others to understand what you say (although if you use poor grammar you may not be able to express your ideas clearly). Pitch and range make it pleasing for others to listen to you.
So when on the active hunt for a job, keep in mind that your voice is a big factor in helping you to make a good impression.

"Another common error of speech is slurring, running one word into another. Try saying this: 'All night it lay, ice drop there.' See how many of your friends can say it so that others readily understand what is said. I have people claim it was a 'nice drop' and even an 'eye drop.' Seldom can the average reader avoid the slurring of words.

"Here are a few phrases which the earnest seeker of a worth-while job should avoid while interviewing the prospective employer:

"'I'll say so.'
"'You said it.'
"'You betcha.'
"'Believe me.'
"'Sure thing.'
"'Check up your own speech. See if,
by any chance, you have adopted some silly phrase which you repeat on any and every occasion. If so, get rid of it, for it is a hindrance to getting a job.'—Western Home Monthly.

One little flapper,
Looking very cute;
Bobbed hair and lipstick—
My, but she's a beauty!
One little tea bound,
Bell-bottomed pants;
Wrist watch and cigarette—
Oh, how he can dance!
Now they are married—
Living in a flat—
Going to be some trouble,
You can bet your hat.
One little divorce court—
Both standing pat;
Home again to papa
And that's that.

WETASKIWIN PLAYERS IN COMEDY-DRAMA FRIDAY OF NEXT WEEK AT MILLET

"Eyes of Love," Which Broke All Records at the Angus Theatre, Will Be Presented in Pinyon's Hall

Wetaskiwin Ladies' Aid Players will appear in Pinyon's hall, Millet, on Friday evening, Jan. 20, when "The Eyes of Love," a three-act comedy from the pen of Lillian Mortimer, will be presented. This production has been written but recently, and Miss Mortimer, the author, has a long list of stage successes to her credit. The staging will be under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the United Church, Millet.

It is a story of the present day, the various developments taking place in the library of Judge Barry's country home on the Hudson River.

Royal Manton and Burt Wade are rival suitors of Gallya Barry, while Reeta Wade evinces serious desires to become Manton's wife. Clark, the butler, noses into the various developments. Upon breaking the news to Judge Barry and his wife that she has accepted one of the rival suitors, Gallya is startled with intelligence from the lips of the Judge which prompts her to break the engagement.

Alone in the house while the family is at the opera, an escaped convict intrudes, but Gallya shows but little per-turbation and sympathizes with the strange man, assisting him to escape whenever covered with a revolver in the hands of Clark, the butler.

A month later a new "wop" gardener arrives on the scene, and Gallya becomes deeply attached to him, but he is recognized as the escaped convict and again arrested, while Gallya pleads his case and pronounces her confidence in his innocence.

Three months pass by, after which happy developments, in which the mystery of her parentage is fully solved, occur as a prelude to Gallya's marriage to the man of her choice, while Carolina crosses a "good luck"
message to the happy couple.

An abundance of wholesome comedy is provided by Lora, the maid, and Clark, the butler, as well as other members of the cast.

Mrs. C. E. Duman has charge of preparations as directress, and every assurance is given that a most interesting story will be unfolded in a most capable manner by the following cast;
which is given in order of their appearance:

Carolina (negro servant) Mrs. W. N. Paton
Gallya (adopted daughter) Miss Genevieve Rocknagle Reeta (a two-faced friend) Mrs. Jas. Dixon
Burt Wade (Reeta's brother) M. Merner
Mrs. Barry (foster-mother) Mrs. Jas. Baldry
Lora (a lively housemaid) Miss Nellie James Clark (a nosy butler) B. W. Bellamy
Judge Barry (foster-father) N. McEachern
Royal Manton (Burt's rival) Walter Orr
Jim Rankin (manacled man) H. Chandler

No employee wants ninety cents for each dollar he has due on pay day—neither does an employer want fifty minutes for an hour. Think it over.

WIESENFORD W.I.

On January 5th the Wiesenford W.I. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Newbold. The roll call was responded to with the original sayings of children. A very instructive and interesting paper on "Child Welfare" was read by Mrs. Atkinson. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Brennan. The roll call will be opened with a selection of the best books for children; and it was proposed that Mrs. Newbold should read a paper on "Education."

ALL RECORDS SMASHED AT THE ANGUS THEATRE BY THE SPIANS OF CITY

The largest crowd that ever invaded the Angus Theatre went into ecstasies on Tuesday evening when local talent staged Lillian Mortimer's three-act comedy drama. The house was sold out long before the curtain rose for the first act, and many ladies even were forced to pay respect to the "standing room only" sign. Popular opinion prevailed that "The Eyes of Love" was the biggest success from various points of view, ever staged by any amateur company in the history of this city.—Wetaskiwin Times, Nov.
29, 1927.

HAD PAINS IN BACK COULD HARDLY WORK

Mrs. Richard Lay, Breckenridge, Que., writes:—"I used to have such pains in my back I could hardly do my work. The worst was my washing when I had to bend over the tub.

"I tried a great many remedies, but they didn't seem to do me much good.
"A friend of mine had used Doan's Kidney Pills and told me how much good they had done her. I only used them a short time and found a great change."

Doan's Kidney Pills do not act on the bowels and if a laxative is needed we would recommend the use of Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills, 25c. a vial

DON'T READ THIS

If your subscription is paid, if it is, you can tell by examining the date on the label. This date shows when your subscription was or will be due. Subscriptions paid during September were very few indeed, but we understand the cause—the grain is not yet harvested and money is very tight. But October should be better, and we do not wish to harass anyone with a little bill like a $2.00 subscription. We believe most people, as soon as they can spare the money will be glad to pay this small item. We appreciate the difficulties of this season's financing, and have endeavored to say as little about subscriptions as possible. But we expect our delinquent subscribers to "come through" just as soon as they can.

SWEDISH BAPTIST INSTITUTE
TO OPEN JANUARY 20

The Swedish Baptist Bible Institute will open Jan. 20th. The length of the course will be as last year, six weeks. All classes are open to the public free of charge. Please accept this as an invitation to attend.

It is the desire of the institute management that the spiritual fervor of the six weeks life of the school be such that the students return to their home churches with their torches lit and burning with the Divine passion for a lost world. It is to be recognized that no teacher, no organization, no scheme of human engineering, can bring this about. God Himself must visit His people. We believe He will visit us as we wait upon Him.

For this reason a pre-Institute Conference is called for all to attend. A Conference for prayer, devotional messages and spiritual fellowship. A real time of calling upon God to "revive us again." This Conference call goes out to all interested people: Teachers, laymen, mother and father and students alike. The following program has been arranged:

Key Thought: Psalm 85:6. "Will Thou not revive us again, that Thy people may rejoice in Thee?"
Friday, January 20th
Theme for the day: "What is a revival?"

2:30 p.m.—Opening session. Addresses of welcome, O. Larson and P. M. Meyer. Roll call, response by pastors, students and visitors. Season of prayer for "Former Students." A revival during this school year? Material blessings (Psalm 4:19); "God's guidance and protection."

7:30 p.m.—Song service and devotion.
8 p.m.—Addresses by C. Levin and J. Paul Erickson. Season of prayer.
Saturday, January 21st
Theme for the day: "Why does the revival not come?"

10 a.m.—Song service and devotion.
10:30 a.m.—Address, N. G. Pearson. Season of prayer.
2:30 p.m.—Song service and devotion.
3 p.m.—Address, J. A. Wingblade.

3:45 p.m.—Open discussion on theme, followed by prayer. Session in charge of E. G. Hansell.
7:30 p.m.—Song service and devotion.
8 p.m.—Addresses, E. Swanson and N. G. Pearson. Season of prayer.

Sunday, January 22nd
Theme for the day: "Lord send the revival."
11 a.m.—Sunday school.
2:30 p.m.—Young People's session. Speakers: Selmer Olssonberg, Edith Peterson and A. H. Taranger.

7:30 p.m.—Addresses by P. M. Meyer (Swedish) and N. G. Pearson (English).
WOMAN NO LONGER COOK
The American restaurant is one of the chief causes of the high divorce rate. Mrs. Christine Frederick, of New York, declared in an address before the National Restaurant Association in convention in Buffalo.

"If you agree," Mrs. Frederick said, "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, then it follows that whoever caters most closely to his appetite will have a chance of his affections. Woman used to hold this place, but the woman of today is no longer a cook. She's a can opener."

MANITOBA AND SASK.
POULTRY POOLS UNITE

Regina, Jan. 7.—Joining together under the title of the Canadian Co-operative Poultry Producers, Limited, the Manitoba and Saskatchewan Poultry Pools have become one as a result of conferences held in the last three days in the city between representatives of both organizations. Following conferences Friday an official statement was issued to the effect that the two pools are now one and that a central selling agency will be established in Winnipeg at a future date.

W. A. Landreth, Hartney, Man., who was president of the Manitoba Pool, became president of the organization, with Mrs. John Holmes, Aquila, who was president of the Saskatchewan Pool, as vice-president.

The purpose of the amalgamation of the two pools is that by joining together competition, one against the other, is avoided, thus insuring greater benefit to the producers in both provinces, and effecting economies through the producers disposing of their products through one organization. It was pointed out that the two provinces, being so closely related to each other, many economies could be effected by the two pools working together through the one organization as well as the

The Vicar made a bad break the other day. At the close of the anthem he rose to preach, and tactlessly chose the text, "Now when the noise had ceased—"

But the choir got their own back. At the end of the long prosy sermon they rose and spontaneously burst into the anthem, "And when we awoke from our sleep."
